

Cures Rheumatism and Catarrh— Medicine Sent Free.

Send no money—simply write and try Botanic Blood Balm at our expense. Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) kills or destroys the poison in the blood which causes the awful aches in back and shoulder blades, shifting pains, difficulty in moving fingers, toes, or legs, bone pains, swollen muscles and joints of rheumatism, or the foul breath, hawking, spitting, droppings in the throat, bad hearing, specks flying before the eyes, all played out feelings of catarrh. Botanic Blood Balm has cured hundreds of cases of 30 or 40 years standing after doctors, hot springs and patent medicines had all failed. Most of these cured patients had taken Blood Balm as a last resort. It is especially advised for chronic deep seated cases. Impossible for any one to suffer the agonies or symptoms of rheumatism or catarrh while or after taking Blood Balm. It makes the blood pure and rich, thereby giving a healthy blood supply. Cures are permanent and not a patching up. Sold at drug stores, $1 per large bottle. Sample of Blood Balm sent free and prepaid, also special medical advice by describing your trouble and writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. A personal trial of Blood Balm is better than a thousand printed testimonials, so write at once.

Why Pugh Declined.

Pugh refused to run for Congress against Kehoe because he knew he had no chance to win. His fellow Republicans in the various other districts would follow his example if they had his sense. Perhaps the smell of the burgoe which is being wafted from the campaign financial pot is more than they can resist.

Cures Chills and Fever

G. W. Wirt, Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "His daughter had chills and fever for three years; he could not find anything that would help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it. 50c. For sale by R. C. Hardwick."

"The National Liquor Dealers' Association, the Knights of the Royal Arch and the Knights of Fidelity will be amalgamated, under the name of the National Liquor League."

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.

FRANK MONROE ROBBED.

Former Editor of Hopkinsville Independent Loses Watch and Money at Fulton

Frank Monroe, former editor of the Hopkinsville Independent, but now a traveling man, was "touched" for $18 in cash and a $65 gold watch while spending Sunday night in Fulton, Ky. He retired and neglected locking his door. Three men, suspicious looking characters, who had been watching him during the early part of the night, are suspected of the theft. They lodged at the same place and left before daylight.—Earlington Bee.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

Former Earlington Democrat now a North Carolina Republican.

The Union Reepublican, published at Winston-Salem, N. C., in a recent number, tells of the prominent part taken by a former Earlington boy in Republican politics in Forsyth county. It is no other than Will G. Braham, who has been made over and elected to the county chairmanship of the Republican campaign committee, and is making a mark as a brilliant campaign orator. The article says: "Aside from being a natural orator, Mr. Braham has a commanding appearance on the stump and is absolutely fearless. He made the best speech heard in this section for a long time."

Mr. Braham, while here, was a vigorous Democrat, but has become a lively convert to the Republican faith.—Earlington Bee.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two 50 cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00. For sale by R. C. Hardwick.

Lost His "Roll."

E. A. Wilson, of the Wilson Hardware Co., who, with his wife spent last week at the worlds fair, arrived home Sunday night a poorer if not a wiser man. He was awakened early Sunday just in time to see a man going out the window with his trousers. In the pockets of the trousers were his railroad tickets and $75 in full legal tender.—Pembroke Journal.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas, writes July 19 1899: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pain. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50c, $1.00. R. C. Hardwick.

PROTRACTED MEETING

Closed at South Union and one Began at Locust Grove.

Rev Jas A. Kirtley has closed a protracted meeting at South Union. There were two restorations and four additions by confession and baptism. Mr. Kirtly on Sunday night begins a meeting at Locust Grove church, of which he is also pastor. He is being assisted by Rev. J. G. Cannon, of Elkton, Ky.

BRYAN LOYAL.

His Paper is Speaking His Views Every Week.

Let All of Bryan's Friends Do As He Is Doing.

(Special Correspondence of the Kentuckian.) Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—Admirers of Mr. Bryan find their good opinion of him vindicated in every issue of the Commoner by his earnest, constant and effective advocacy of the election of Parker and Davis.

When the National Democratic Convention adjourned there was the usual effervescence of exultation in the excitable element of the prevailing side of the controversies which were there decided. This soon subsided, and with it whatever sense of irritation it had caused.

Mr Bryan promptly changed his attitude as leader of one section of the party in a convention, and addressed himself to his duties as one of the acknowledged leaders of the party as a whole, in his quadrennial struggle to overcome the common enemy. Trusted as he had twice been with the chief honor it could bestow, he doubtless felt he great obligation he was under to prove his worthiness to command by his willingness to obey. He gave no uncertain sound, made no reservation, and left the most skeptical mind no room to doubt the intense earnestness of his support of Democratic principles, and the candidates who represent them in his campaign.

Why then, should any statement be necessary on the subject of Mr Bryan's good work? Why are not the columns of his paper sufficient evidence of it. The answer is that everybody cannot see his paper, and that persistent efforts are being made by the enemy to weaken the force of his powerful influence by false statements concerning his attitude. The statements would deceive none who see what Mr. Bryan is saying from week to week; but thousands of men who do not see it, and who are devoted to him, are being falsely told that he does not want Parker elected, and is not laboring to that end. They carry these tactics so far, as to say that in certain States the Bryan men are "sulking"; they hope that such rumors will cause a feeling of uncertainty among them.

Any Democrat professing friendship for Mr. Bryan is false to that friendship if he aids by his voice or his vote to give the Republican party the victory which Mr. Bryan is laboring with all the force he possesses to prevent.

These things are not said as agreeing with Mr. Bryan's views on the money question, which, as he said in his latest issue, "is not in the campaign," but they are said as recognizing in him a clear intellect, a brave heart, and a direct way of fighting.

To sum up the whole matter, when Mr. Bryan was the candidate of the party in 1896, Judge Parker who differed with him on the money question, supported him because he preferred Democratic to Republican rule. When Mr. Bryan was the candidate again in 1900, Judge Parker again cordially supported him. Now that Judge Parker is the candidate of the party, Mr. Bryan, who differs with him on the money question, cordially supports him because he too prefers Democratic to Republican rule. Both are Democrats and both submit to the action of Democratic National conventions.

If Parker and Davis are elected all Democrats will share the honor of the victory. If Parker is defeated let it not be said that it was because of the treachery of Bryan Democrats who refused to follow their leader in support of the ticket. The united action of Democrats can elect Parker.

Was in Torture all the Time.

Had Pains in His Back.

Dr. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—Some six months ago a friend recommended to me your justly celebrated Kidney and Backache Cure. I was at that time suffering intensely from pains in my back.

My work daily aggravated the complaint and I was in torture all the time. After taking two bottles of your medicine I was relieved and two more completely cured me. I feel like a new man now, thanks to your Remedy, and unhesitatingly recommend it to those suffering as I was.

Sincerely yours,
